the Dred Scott decision are of no avail. It is a legitimate inference from the Journal's dissent to all our positions, that it maintains the opposite to them all. We therefore set it down that the organ of the Opposition party in Kentucky avows the vile, abhorrent, and spurned doctrines of the Missouri Prohibition and the Wilmot Proviso. It boldly asserts the principle of Congressional interference with slavery in the Territories; and we have the best data for determining what kind of interference it desires, when we remember its bitter and unrelenting opposition to the admission of Kansas into the Union with a proslavery constitution; its equally violent opposition to the repeal of the Missouri Prohibition, and, if report be true, its former advocacy of undisguised Abolitionism.

District Convention.

The Lexington Statesman, in response to the suggestion of the Democracy of this county, that a district convention be held at an early day, says:

The Central Committee for the District, several members of which reside here, desire only a full expression of the sentiment of the party touching this subject. For ourself, we concur in the propriety of an early call for a convention, but in revolving in our mind different points for its conrocation, we had inclined to Nicholasville, as convenient and accessible, if not as central as this city. A. Proposition Party. The opposition party oppose the emigration of European paupers to this country, the introduction of laborers from China, and the importation of African savages for slaves. It opposes the acquisition of Cuba by purchase or conquest, and the extension of the United States boundary to appropriation bill. the Isthmus of Darien. It opposes liberal expenditures for the navy and army. It opposes a general diffusion of the post-office benefits upon low rates of postage. It opposes an appropriation of the public lands to the States in which they lie; that the whole land may be made valuable, and afford larger contributions to the government. It opposes Congressional interference with the institutions and social affairs of the Territories; and last, though not least, it opposes Mr. Buchanan's continuance in celibacy, and insists that he shall call to his council an ancient dame to take charge of him in his old age, whom she might claim as her liege spouse. All things are best understood by contrast with their opposites; it is therefore proposed to organize a Proposition party in the city of Frankfort, upon the following "platform:" Abolition of the freehold qualification of trustees and the tax upon existence, (poll tax.) It is proposed to levy an equal tax upon all property within the limits of the city; and that the Assessor shall require of each person a list of his lots, slaves, the amount of his chattels, his bills of exchange, cash notes, bonds upon individuals, funds in his possession of every kind, money on hand, Ky. or secured by mortgage or otherwise; and he 18th shall require of the Presidents of manufacturing in same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Eaguer Park and the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Cashier of the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Same property above specified; and he shall require of the Cashier of the Same property above specified; and the Same property above specified; and the Same property above specified in the Same property abo quire of the Cashier of the Farmer's Bank of Kentucky, and the Branch Bank of Kentucky in Frankfort, a like list. Whatever else may be said of the Opposition to the Democracy, it will not be denied that they are truitful in expedients. They have a new front for every occasion. When the public mind is diseased upon any particular question, when readiseased upon any particular question, when readise question and the particular que son is dethroned and passion and prejudice rule supreme, then the Opposition shout for principle, assume the gaib of martyrs for truth, and petition the people for their votes on high grounds. Bloody rumors were rife yesterday in connecwhich to fight the Democratic element of the Nation, and hence they seize hold of the prevailing bias of public sentiment, and lead it still further astray from the path of reason and justice by artful suggestions and the exhibition of but a few of the facts in each particular case.

But in every instance where there really was principle at stake to be contended for, the Democracy of the country appealed to the intelligence of the masses, and gained a decided victory. The Opposition were unhorsed, and the contest ended, going home forthwith, he was quite under the in-Opposition were unhorsed, and the contest ended, so far as principles were concerned. Then, however, came the expediency dodge. When no longer able to find reasonable objection to the stumbled and fallen down the cellar way, where measures and policy of a Democratic Administration, they resort to the ready-made charge of corruption, and appeal to the fertile brains of hired defamers to coin false charges, and send them broadcast over the land. This has been the course pursued by the Opposition with reference to the administration of Lames Bushanan. They nent acts and suggestions of the National Administration were responded to in like manner by the patriotic heart of the nation. The charges of corruption, too, have been disproven, but still belpless inebriate hurled down the abyss by some repetition of a falsehood could make it, more which suggest themselves unpleasantly, and throw worthy of belief. But this is no new teature in the a veil of mystery over the melancholy affair that history of Democratic administrations. Gen. Jackson was the object of most unqualified abuse from the opposition party, and the charges of corruption against his administration were even often asked Walsh if he was not afraid to go more boldly and audaciously persisted in than those now urged against that of Mr. Buchanan. As a sample of these charges, read the following from the National Journal; printed in Washing-non the National Journal; printed in Washing-non the heart, the other under the back. Officer nistration of Gen. Jackson:

"The foregoing incomplete list shows that Gen. two blocks from where the body was found, fan-"The following facts will appear:

"The annual amount of public money paid to four only of the editors, &c., thus rewarded, steps, listened to hear if the cry was repeated. It which four were among the conductors of a single paper, is upwards of ten thousand five hundred dollars, viz: $2,000 to N. Green, $2,000 to T. Dexter—all concerned in the Boston Statesman, the leading paper in favor of Gen. Jackson in the State of Massachusetts.

"To nine of those editors, &c., the annual amount of public money paid is about twenty-five thousand dollars, viz: $3,000 to Isaac Hill, $3,000 to Kendall, $3,391 34 to Wagner, $3,000 to Kendall, $3,391 34 to Wagner, $3,000 to Noah, $2,264 40 to Carr, and to N. Green, Dunlap, Henshaw, and Dexter, the respective sums already stated.

Steps, listened to hear if the cry was repeated. It was not. There was a ball in the neighborhood, and a great many people were about at the time. What sort of people were they, and did one of them hurl poor Walsh down the steps, and while hay helpless, rob him? Was that solitary cry of "Watch" his death shrick? Or the hand over the heart raised to prevent the watch from being stolen from the vest pocket? These are all questions which the public ask themselves, and which the Coroner and his jury will do well to investigate.

The wiseacres of the opposition, who are endeavoring to consolidate their several factions into one, for the purpose of destroying forever the Democratic party, seem to think that now is the propitious time for the completion of this purpose, and, as a consequence, though the contracts for these routes have been advertised and proposals received, they cannot be put is long scught triumph. How did the battle terminate? What was the result of the mighty struggle in which all the elements of the opposition and very many sore-headed Democrats united and fought against the Democratic party which stood single handed in the conflict? The result was the complete rout of the coali-

From Washington.

Washington, March 22 .- In reply to a note of George Mattingly, the Postmaster General informs him that Congress has, for the first time since the organization of the government, failed to make provision for the Department. Had all the members of the next Congress been elected, the President might, on the 4th of March, have called an extra session and the omissions of the late Congress been supplied; but it was impossi-ble to do so without disfranchising fifteen of the sovereign States. This was most unfortunate. There ought to be no time when a full Congress could not be convened, and it is firmly hoped that such a state of affairs may never again occur. Had the bill, which failed to pass, made provisions only for the fiscal year, commencing on the 1st of July, there would have been obviously no neces-

The payment of the principal part will be made in 30 days. The Postmaster General makes other statements to Postmaster General makes other statements to show that it would be impossible to convene Congress in time to meet the great bulk of responsibilities without virtually excluding from Congress the Representatives of several of the sove reign States. In the judgment of the President, the lesser evil was to wait until the 1st Monday in December, when all the States will be fully rep-resented. The contracts can never be regulated. After the amounts due shall be ascertained they become debts which must be paid. On this, the Contractors, if they desire, can borrow money. The lender could have no better security. Provision should also be made for the payment of the interests which would amount to less than $100, 000. A system of retrenchment, so far as practicable, is now an imperative duty. By the act of 1858 Congress established 695 new post routes, the service of which includes the St. Paul and Puget Sound route, established in 1855, but not yet put in operation. The Washington Union in considering these figures remarks, that "it is plain that unless the Democrats gain six votes at least in the elections yet to be held for the House, the party will be in a minority in that body." The Union remarks:

"The number of 'Democrats' who will prove fishy, will probably be offset by as many South Americans who will vote with the Democratic organization; so that a gain of six or ten in the elections yet to be held will secure a Democratic House. Hence the great importance of deferring the organization of the House until all the elections shall have been held."

SUCH as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach.Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite. Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous and Rheumatic and Neuralgic affections, it has in numerous instances preved highly beneficial and in others affected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Borhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction in the U.S. was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

Notice—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

The great popularity of this celebrated Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.
